Eight-Year-Old Lad Who Lost a Leg Astonishes Bellevue Doctors by His Grit Over Its Amputation.

WAS SORRY FOR HIS PARENTS HIS WIFE AN HEIRESS.

Little Seymour Wesley Smith, now patient in Ward 40 of Bellevue Hospital, won the admiration of all the docfors of the institution by his bravery during the past week. They all declare that he has more grit in him than any her patient they have come in con bact with for a long time.

Eight-year-old Seymour is the only son of a physician of the same name, who resides at No. 66 Madison avenue. A week ago, while playing "tag" with girl friend in the street, he was knocked down and run over by a heavy truck. His right leg was crushed below the knee, and by the time Dr. Alexander had arrived from Bellevue

The doctors say that the boy has never yet lost his grit during the presence of his father or mother, but sometimes when they are both absent he permits his pain to overcome him and then sobs himself to sleep.

GIRLS PLAY IN BURNT CORK.

They Take Part in Minstrel Show in Aid of Hebrew Charities.

The Junior League of the Congregation Apereth Israel added several hundred dollars to the cause of Hebrew charities by a minstrel show and re-ception at the Lexington Avenue Opera-House last night.

Twenty young men and a similar num-Twenty young men and a similar number of young women disguised their faces under a coating of burnt cork, and pleased a large audience with the usual first part. An olio of exceptional merit followed, in which Miss Bessle Wright made the hit of the evening.

Felix Feist sang several songs of his town composition. At the reception, which followed the minstrel show, Miss Rosa Goodman was voted the "belle of the ball."

Frederick J. Beach, of Plymouth, Conn., in Constant Fear of an Unknown Who Shot at Him

Through Window.

WATERBURY, Conn., March 26. Stirred by the ineffectual efforts of the police to find the person who has threatened and attempted the life of Frederick I. Beach, one of the most popular young men of Plymouth, the residents of that town are renewing their watch the window at Beach on March 17 he has received letters from his unknown enemy telling him that although that effort was unsuccessful the time would come when he would be killed. Friends have urged him to leave town until the Beach is a favorite of William W. Bull, Hospital the boy's father had also one of the wealthy men of the town. He fell in love with Mr. Bull's grand-

PUTNAM, Conn., March 26.-After all night session of argument, the jury in the case of Mrs. Lillian Wanson charged with the murder of Julia Wil son, at Ashford, on Dec. 13 last, by arsenical poisoning, came into coursearly to-day and reported that they were unable to agree.

They stated that they stood seven for Mrs. Benham Gets Alimony.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, March 26.—Justice Keokh, in the Supreme Court to-day, signed an order granting Mrs. Thomas L. Benham, formerly of Mount Vernon, but now of Watertown, 17 a week allimony and $200 counsel fees pending her suit for separation from her husband.

They stated that they stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction on the charge of murder in the second degree. Mrs. Manson, who had been in the court-room all night waiting for the vertical had not sleept. She showed so sign of emotion when the jury announced the result and calmly went away with the jallers to prison.
